Precinct served up

STAGE two of the residential precinct beside the State Tennis Centre at Tennyson was released last week.

Tennyson Reach is a $555 million riverfront development. Stage two includes 92 apartments, called Farringford apartments.

Developer Mirvac released apartment details to a limited number of pre-registered prospective buyers before launching them publicly on Friday.

Mirvac Queensland chief executive officer Chris

Freeman said buyers committed $22 million and he was happy with initial sales.

“The response we have had so far has been very encouraging and I am confident that the pace of sales will continue,” he said.
