

Arena is an ace

How fantastic it is to have world-class tennis being played in Brisbane again.

The new $82 million Pat Rafter Arena at Tennyson is a fitting venue for the game's best to display their skills.

Queenslanders have always loved tennis and produced more than our fair share of champions. Here's hoping the official opening heralds a new era and inspires a new generation of sports stars.

Printed and published by Queensland Newspapers Pty Ltd (ACN 009 661 778) 41 Campbell Street, Bowen Hills, Q., 4006. The Editor of The Sunday Mail, Liz Deegan, accepts responsibility for election comment.